Dear Parents,

Can you imagine that summertime is here again? We have enjoyed working with your students! We have seen such growth this year and desire that each child continues from strength to strength.

To this end, we have some summer resource material and a grade-appropriate reading list available. A minimum of three books should be read over the summer.

Requirements:

Entering 9th -12th grade, complete two (2) book projects over the summer, one of which should be a book report and the other in the form of a creative project.

(The rubric for all projects is included in this packet)

The assignments must be returned on the first day of school in August to be included in the Language Arts grade for the first marking period.

Summer reading is meant to be fun and relaxing! The enclosed reading list offers a selection of enjoyable, age-appropriate literature. We have also attached the format to be used for written reports and suggestions for creative projects. Students who read over the summer return to school ready to continue their learning with little or no learning loss. The important thing is that students read, read, read!!!

Respectfully,

Ms. Afua

Review of Things Fall Apart By Chinua Achebe

1. Introduction: An eye - catching introduction to the book that mentions the title of the book and the author. This is to gain your audience's attention (it could be a question or making a connection).
2. 1st Body paragraph: Short Summary: Provide a short summary of the book IN YOUR OWN WORDS! Do not use SparkNotes or any other website to write the summary or you will automatically receive a zero!
3. Analysis: This is the main part of your book review and should be the bulk of your essay. Here is how your analysis should be broken down.
 - 2nd Body Paragraph:
 - Describe two main themes in the book and give examples from the book. Themes include: Love, Greed, Loneliness, Good v. Evil, Revenge, Coming of Age, etc.
 - What do you believe is the main goal of the book? Did the author achieve it? How?
 - 3rd Body Paragraph
 - What did you like best about the book? What did you like least about the book?
 - Do you relate to any of the characters? Did the author effectively describe the characters or did they leave unanswered questions about parts of the character?

Conclusion and Final Recommendation: Did you enjoy the book? Why or why not? Do you recommend this book? Why or why not? End your review strong!!

Your book review must be a 5 paragraph essay typed in Times New Roman, 12pt font, double spaced with proper MLA heading.

You may be asked to give a short synopsis of your book in class so be prepared!!
